After School STEM Program

October 5th, from 3:30-4:30, we will be having an after school STEM program. ISU Youth Extension will be here to talk about and demonstrate Bee Bots. These cute little robots are a perfect tool for teaching sequencing, problem solving, estimation, or just having fun! Kids K-4th are welcome to attend. Sign up at the Library!

Author Book Launch

October 12th at 2pm, author Betty Brandt Passick will be here to discuss her upcoming book, "The Black Bag of Dr. Wiltse: Murder on the Prairie". This will be a hybrid program, in person at the Library and on Zoom. If you would like to attend via Zoom, please sign up at the Library, as we will need an email address to send out the meeting invitation.

Adult Craft Day

On October 27th from 2-4, we will be making cupcake liner wreaths. All materials will be provided. Please sign up at the Library.

Halloween Party

Come to the Library on October 21st, 3:30-5, for a fun and spooky time! We will be having a movie, snacks, and crafts to tingle your toes! Costumes are not required, but are always welcome!

Genealogy & History Club

Seasoned genealogist? Excited beginner? We've got what you need with the Denver Genealogy & History Club. The group meets the 4th Tuesday of each month with a featured speaker!
The Genealogy Club will meet on October 26th, at 2 pm. David Marvitz will be here to showcase his photography collection, "Amish Community Through the Seasons". He has developed a rapport with the Amish, thus he was allowed to take photographs. This meeting will be in person.

Basket Donations

It is that time of the year again. We will be doing the Annual Book Basket Silent Auction this year. The Silent Auction will take place on Saturday, December 4th. The Friends of the Library are asking the public for help with donations. We will be accepting the usual items for the themed baskets. Donations will be due by November 17th. There will be a full list of what is needed in the paper and on Facebook. There are flyers for pick up in the Library.

Painted Pumpkin Contest

The Annual Painted Pumpkin Contest is back! Decorate your pumpkin as a favorite book, movie, or game character. and bring it to the Library by October 28th. Pumpkins will be on display from October 21-28th. They will be judged on October 28th.
No carved pumpkins!
All participants will receive a free prize. Pumpkins must be picked up by November 3rd. After that, they will be discarded.
Entry forms can be picked up at the Library.

The Annual Dr. E.H. Stumme Art & Photography Show has been canceled for November 2021 due to anticipated renovations at the Library. More information will be forthcoming as to when the Library may reschedule the event. Please watch the Library's website or Facebook page for information as it becomes available.

The Stranger in the Woods by Michael Finkel

Book Club

Oct. 5th 6:30

The Stranger in the Woods is a nonfiction book about the "North Pond hermit," who has lived in the Maine wilderness alone for 27 years. Through letters and interviews, the author learns about his origins, survival tactics, and burglary raids that made him a local legend. First published in a GQ article, the books provides more material and an expanded ending.
