Participants will also need a computer, a webcam, speakers and a microphone, or a headset to be in the meeting.

Library Weather Closures

When weather is nasty enough that it is considered dangerous for employees and patrons of the Library, we will close. We will announce closures on our Facebook page and send it to be announced on KWWL. There also may be times that the Library has to close early due to inclement weather. This will also be announced on Facebook and KWWL. We always want to make sure that everyone stays safe and sound.

Saturday, December 4th will be the Denver's Old Fashioned Christmas event. The Library will be open from 9-6 with music, the Usborne Book Fair, authors Linda McCann and Betty Brandt Passick, all going on from 1-5, crafts, and pictures with Santa at 2! Bring an unwrapped toy to receive a free 5x7 photo. The Book Basket Silent Auction will be going on with bidding ending at 5. The Festival of Trees will be going on in the Community Room from 1-5. The theme this year is "Tidings & Tinsel". The Library will have a Wish Tree for items used in crafts, and movies and games to add to the collection.

Adult Craft Day

On November 10th, we will be having a special Baking Class with Denver's own Nicki Skaar. This will be an evening class, from 6:30-8. The Library will provide ingredients, but would appreciate it if anyone can bring rolling mats and sifters.

Not A Sound By Heather Gudenkauf

When a tragic accident leaves nurse Amelia Winn deaf, she spirals into a depression that causes her to lose everything that matters. Two years later, getting back on her feet, she discovers the body of a fellow nurse in the woods by her cabin, and uncovers a mystery that could shatter all that she had been holding together.
